++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:

Rather cloudy overnight, but fine on Wednesday.

This Evening and Tonight:

Rather cloudy as a band of rain edges southeast overnight, fading away as it does so, with many areas staying dry. Becoming clearer and colder to end the night, with clearer conditions likely arriving too late for a frost. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Wednesday:

Any remaining early cloud soon clearing to reveal a brighter and fresher day than of late, with sunny periods. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:

This period should stay largely dry, but often rather cloudy, with a risk of some morning fog given mainly light winds. Temperatures should be generally above average throughout.
